Blended Service 9:00 AM

3rd Sunday of Mo. Healing Service 9:00 AM

2nd & 4th Sunday of Mo. Children's Sermon 9:00 AM

Most people talk of “going to church” rather than “being the church.”

There are significant differences between the two statements. “Going to church” infers that “church” is a static, bricks and mortar building, that it's a place that one goes to. “Being the church” infers that “church” is a dynamic, living, breathing entity which moves and has its being wherever it's seeking to do ministry in Jesus' name.

“Going to church” infers that it is something one can “take” or “leave,” that it will still be there if one does not attend, that it exists whether or not anyone gathers where it is located. “Being the church” infers that without one's involvement the church ceases to exist or at least ceases to be effective or of any consequence.

“Going to church” is what those who have their names on the membership roles but do not attend on a regular basis (more than two times a year) do. They are church members in name only. “Being the church” is what those who seek to live out their Christian faith day-by-day do. For them, the church is wherever they are, it's doing whatever they're doing, it's ministering to others as they minister to others. “Being the church” means you gather together—in a building or elsewhere—to renew and re-strengthen each other's faith by worshipping God and hearing His Word as shared by His Holy Spirit communicating with our spirits.

As “going to church” becomes the dominate theme of the majority of the members in any congregation, that congregation is declining and unless the theme of their membership changes to “being the church” that church will eventually cease to be.

How then do we change themes? First, by recognizing “the church of Jesus Christ” is not a building, no matter how beautiful or historic it may be. The building is the place where “the church” gathers. Without a gathered congregation, the building is just another building created by human beings. With a gathered congregation, “the church” becomes a creation of Jesus Christ Himself.

We change from “going to church” to “being the church” by changing how we think about what “the church” truly is, by seeing “the church” as something dynamic and alive rather than static and made of bricks and mortar. When we think of “the church” as being made of flesh and blood, of bones and muscle, then we will see ourselves as “being the church” rather than “going to church.” Then we will see the need for gathering together on a regular basis in order to maintain and increase our strength and ability to “be the church of Jesus Christ, our Lord.”

Be Blessed! Pastor Gary

SCHOOL BUS THANK YOU!!!

It is very refreshing to hear that the synod office has made provisions for the school bus.....

To be sincere to you the school is a model one which has attracted many communities. I have received several invitations to come and build day care schools for them. And I believe the procurement of the bus will help beneficiary communities and surrounding dwellers to harness the full benefits if the facility. I am assuring you that so long as God has spared my life and I am back to ministry I will do everything within my ability to guarantee value for money. Going forward I am volunteering myself as United Church of Christ education director to promote the interest of UCC providing education for rural poor in or outside Ghana. (an ambition I want to fulfill for humanity.

Blessings, PAT

WEDNESDAY WAVERS RULE!!!

The dedicated Wednesday Wavers are saying goodbye to a beautiful summer and are moving into fall. Thank you all for getting up early every week to share fellowship with a coffee and donuts reward. You prove that St. Luke's is the friendliest church around. Drivers happily wave back and toot their horns, going to work with a smile on their faces.

A Word About Worship

And now for something completely different. Worship can take many forms. St. Luke's will again be having a table at this year's Trappe Day. If you are able, please come out and join us this year. Last year, we were able to pray with people, pray for people, spread some words of comfort and share a bit about our church with the community.

Trappe Day will be held at Waterworks Park on September 30th from 10:00 am - 3:00 pm. Rain Date will be Sunday October 1st. If you can help man our table for a few minutes or an hour or two, please see Nancy Claycomb.

While cleaning, I found an old "St. Luke's Evangelical and Reformed Church Newsletter." How old, you ask? May 1946 – written by Rev. Arthur C. Ohl.

Throughout our history, we have faced many challenges. Yet, we are still here. As the adage goes, if you are still here, God isn't finished with you yet. Our recent time of the pandemic seems to correlate with St. Luke's post war-time issues. (And a personal note, I LOVE the phone number: Collegeville 4271)

Our Zeal for St. Luke's

We firmly believe that the Church is the living organism by which God builds the Kingdom of Heaven. It is the mission of the Church to redeem this needy world. In another sense, the Church is the fellowship of men and women led by the Spirit of Christ, to do His will, and in mutual love and service find the joy of the Christian way of life.

It is in this faith, the members of St. Luke's press forward with zeal making their sacrifices for their beloved Church and giving their time and hearty support and service. Our congregation has received a new impetus through the Lenten and Easter services. We have received inspiration and enthusiasm. The attendance of the services has improved. For this revival of interest, we are thankful. May there be no letdown. Rather let us continue with God's help to advance.

The Woman's Guild recently held a very helpful meeting with a meditation on "Altars Along Life's Way." It included this personal question:

Do you Just Belong?

by Anonymous

Are you an active member; the kind that would be missed,

Or are you just contented that your name is on the list?

Do you attend the meetings and mingle with the flock,

Or do you stay at home and criticize and knock?

Do you take an active part to help the work along,

Or are you satisfied to be the kind that just belong?

Do you ever go to visit a member that is sick,

Or leave the work for just a few and talk about the clique?

There's quite a program scheduled that I'm sure you've heard about, and we'll appreciate it if you will come and help us out.

So come to the meetings often and help with hand and heart,

Don't be just a member, but take an active part.

Think this over, member, you know right from wrong

Are you an active member or do you just belong?
